From: Janet Petras, Director-Wheelchair Tennis
Kai Schrameyer, National Coach

Subject: 2019 National High Performance Program:
Nomination Process

The National High Performance Program (NHPP) is designed for athletes who are on track to meet Tennis Canada's, Sport Canada's, and Own the Podium's performance and podium objectives in 2020 and beyond. The objectives include:

- Paralympic and ParapanAm podium results
- Top 16 ITF singles world rankings
- Targeted World Team Cup results
- A pool of next gen athletes

To be considered for the 2019 NHPP interested athletes are to forward the following documentation to Janet Petras, Director-Wheelchair Tennis by November 16:

1 Shoreham Drive, Suite 100
Toronto, ON / M3N 3A6

f. 416.665.9017

285 rue Gary-Carter
Montréal, QC / H2R 2W1

t. 514.273.1515 / 1.855.TENNIS.0
f. 514.276.0070

- ✓ Letter of interest indicating your desire to commit to the 2019 NHPP
- ✓ Draft 2019 objectives, competitive and weekly training schedules

Objective, competitive and weekly training schedule templates can be accessed from the Tennis Canada web site: <https://www.tenniscanada.com/competitive/wheelchair/> , or by contacting National Coach Kai Schrameyer at kschrameyer@tenniscanda.com). Only Tennis Canada templates will be accepted.

After a review of the applications successful athletes will be contacted and a planning meeting scheduled. The meeting will include the athlete, the athlete's personal coach, the National Coach, and other personnel as required. The purpose of the meeting is to clearly define objectives, and to collaboratively design the annual training and competitive plan for the year. Final acceptance into the NHPP is determined through the meeting process.

Applications to be forwarded to Janet Petras at jpetras@tenniscanada.com.

Thank you.
