From: Janet Petras, Director-Wheelchair Tennis
Kai Schrameyer, National Coach

Subject: 2020 National High Performance Program: Nomination Process

The National High Performance Program pathway is designed for athletes who are on track to meet Tennis Canada's performance and podium objectives in 2020 and beyond. These objectives include Paralympic and Parapan Am podium results, targeted World Team Cup results, and a pool of top ITF ranked players in the men's, women's, quad and junior divisions

To apply for acceptance into the 2020 National High Performance Program, please submit the following information by October 25, 2019:

1. Letter of interest indicating your desire to commit to the 2020 National High Performance Program
2. Draft 2020 objectives, competitive and training schedule using the attached templates

All athletes applying for the Program will be contacted once the letters and draft plans are reviewed. For those athletes who meet the minimum standards individual meetings will be scheduled during - or around the time of - the Birmingham Nationals in October/November. The meeting will include the athlete, personal coach, National Coach, and Director and will focus on a review of 2019, and a collaboration on the development of the 2020 annual plans and performance benchmarks. Athletes will be notified during or after these meetings if they have been accepted into the Program.

Applications to be forwarded to Kai Schrameyer at kschrameyer@tenniscanada.com.

Thank you.
